Policy Effective Date	1st September, 2025
Applicable	All employees based in India
Approved by	VP - Business Operations
Prepared by	Business Operations
Version	1.0

1. Objective

This policy outlines the process, timelines, and responsibilities for reimbursement of expenses incurred by employees based in India, in alignment with the respective company policies

2. Applicability

This policy applies to all employees located in India who are eligible for reimbursements as per company policies.

3. Scope

The policy covers reimbursement of expenses related to business activities, including but not limited to:

- Accommodation
- Airfare
- Client Engagement
- Other Expenses
- Per Diem & Meals
- Relocation Expenses
- Telephone & Internet
- Tools & Subscriptions
- Travel Visa & Ancillary Charges

4. Scope

- Reimbursement Entitlement: Employees are eligible to claim reimbursements only as per entitlements defined in the respective company policies (e.g., Travel Policy, Relocation Policy, Team Engagement Policy, etc.).
- Supporting Documents: Original and valid bills, invoices, tickets, or receipts substantiating the expense.

5. Process of Reimbursement Submission

Step 1: Claim Submission (Employee)

- Log in to Darwinbox using your official email ID.
- Create your expense claim and upload all supporting documents.
- For guidance, refer to the attached demo video.

Step 2: Review (Business Ops team)

- The Business Ops team will review requests in line with HR policies (Travel, Relocation, Team Engagement, etc.) and approve/reject as per Service Level Agreements (SLAs):
  - No additional approval required → Verified within 2 working days.
  - Additional approval required → Verified within 5 working days.
- Additional approval may be required if:
  - The expense is related to a client.
  - The expense is outside policy limits.
  - Any exception needs special authorization.
- Note: Additional approvals are managed manually via email by the Business Ops team.
- If rejected, employees must resubmit with corrections based on the rejection comments.

Step 3: Approval (Reporting Manager)

- Once verified by the Business Ops team, requests are routed to the employee's Reporting Manager (as mapped in Darwinbox) for approval.

Step 4: Processing (Finance Team)

- After Reporting Manager approval, the Finance Team processes reimbursements as per the following payment cycle:

Approval Period	Payment Date
1st – 15th of the month	By 20th of the month
16th – End of the month	By 5th of the following month

Step 5: Tracking & Notifications

- Employees can track reimbursement status in real time within Darwinbox.
- Email notifications are sent at each stage of the process.

✅ Key Reminders

- Always attach clear and valid supporting documents.
- Ensure expenses comply with respective company policies to avoid delays.
- Employees should monitor approval timelines and follow up with approvers if required.

6. Timeline to claim the reimbursement

All reimbursement must be claimed within 60 days from the effective date of expense
